The Wanamaker Store

Another Cotton Offering

THIS time, twenty thousand yards of the prettiest printed Batistes you have ever seen. A popular fabric of the season, strong, durable, dainty, cheap. These twenty thousand yards we will sell At Nine Cents a Yard

It's a twelve-and-a-half cent quality.

Tailored Suits for Women An inexhaustible subject, and apparently one of inexhaustible interest to you. The prices on these imported suits are the lowest we have ever known. It would seem that the English and French makers have waked up to the fact that America was getting their tailoring trade, and have made attractive prices to get it back. Attractive garments, too, $50 to $75. Lately we have been giving you some excellent suits,—in fact, some of the best we have had in stock,—at a reduction of one-third from the prices that we first asked and that you called fair. The suits are now priced at from $15 to $35, and we'll never give you better suit-advice than to come and see them.

Hot days make you think of summer-wear and summer-places. Pique skirts? $1.50 to $10.

Golf Capes for Summer Wear There's no weather too warm to talk Golf Capes in. The warmer the weather the more thought of seatrips or ocean-side or mountain air, and a golf cape is as much a part of the preparation for them as the packing of the trunk.

The golf cape is an emergency garment, as well as one for steady use. There's no time too hot for emergencies of thunder showers, cool evenings and east winds.

We have a fine assortment of them in both foreign and domestic cloths, $6.50 to $55.

Second floor, Broadway.

Lawn Wrappers The cool, delicate fabric is shown in a pleasing variety in this collection of home-gowns. Plenty of pure white ones in new styles of making. They are $1.75 to $8.50. Then there are the prettily striped and checked, the handsomely figured, and the no less desirable kinds in new solid colors. For these 75c. to $5.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Women's Half-Price Handkerchiefs Notwithstanding recent advances in cost of manufacture, here come some of St. Gall's best work in fine linen handkerchiefs at half-off-prices. These are embroidered and scalloped on an excellent quality of linen, and are the usual 25c. and 50c. handkerchiefs; now 12 1/2c. and 25c. each.

Response to yesterday's announcement was prompt, eager, but the stock was too large for one day's selling. Plenty of good values and excellent patterns. 5c., 10c., 12 1/2c. and 15c. a yard. All about half regular prices. Broadway.

White Aprons and Caps Eighteen cents buys an apron of sheer lawn with a wide satin striped border and deep hem. In better grades and more elaborately trimmed, at 25c., 50c., 75c., and up to $1.25. Generously cut aprons of checked gingham, at 18c to 40c. Maids' caps at 6c. to 65c.; nurses' caps, at 15c. to 75c.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Women's Fine Pocket-books In a splendid collection of absolutely latest styles are a few that deserve a word or two to themselves, on account of both beauty and uniqueness of design.

One is of "peau de grene" (skin of the reindeer); black, tan, gray and brown; unlike the ordinary suede, inasmuch as the skin is entirely oilless, and thus retains indefinitely its smooth, soft, unstained appearance, handsome heavy rims and hands, set with garnets, amethysts and coral, $6.50 to $10.50.

Another sort has fine floristic motifs in sterling silver inlaid with elegant designs of 14-k. gold. These come in monkey skin, seal, levant and imitation cork. $8 to $14.50.

Third floor.

Umbrellas—Short and Rich Please note the quantity offered before you read another word. There are but 168 umbrellas in the lot. If you are not one of the first 168 people to call, don't scold us for a lost opportunity.

We'll wait until three o'clock this afternoon. Then these will be put on sale and in half an hour it will be all over. Only one to a customer.

French and English goods, of the handsomest sorts.

FOR MEN All the $5 to $9 sorts at $2.50. All the $7.50 to $20 sorts at $5.

FOR WOMEN All the $5 to $9 sorts at $2.50. All the $10 to $12 sorts at $3.75. All the $15 to $25 sorts at $5.

Brooklyn. This is an especially attractive line of Women's Jewelry for Summer wear—sets of buttons for waists, pins for belts and hats, and so on. The violet is much in evidence. There are violet scarf pins, brooches, belt pins, hat pins and sets of beauty pins at 25c. And these—Sterling silver Waist Sets, 35c. Sterling silver Pocket Sets, 25c. Gold plated Waist Sets, 25c. Coral Scarf Pins, 25c. and 50c. Coral Brooches, 50c.

Brooklyn and Tenth street.

Social Correspondence Papers The finest grades that the world produces are here in abundance. Here, too, at the most reasonable prices. Some good qualities follow—values not frequently found elsewhere. Like these: Cream Vellum Note Paper, in 3 sizes, 10c. a pound; envelopes, 15c. per 100. A very high-grade Note Paper, Satin Ripple, in light blue; 3 sizes, 20c. a pound; envelopes, 35c. per 100. Florentine Cabinet, 125 sheets paper; 100 envelopes suede or satin finish; linen and bond; 55c. box.

Brooklyn. It is on our counters to-day,—a most interesting number, containing an excellent portrait and sketch of the life of Edward Noyes Westcott, author of "David Harum;" News Notes concerning new publications here at home, in Boston, Chicago and London; Reviews, Books Announced, etc. If you would know what is going on in the book world, subscribe for "Book News," 5c.; one year, 50c. The Book Store, Ninth street.

Just the right time for an item like this.

May-day develops a great many unsuspected furniture wants.

Handsome pieces, of imitation and solid mahogany, all with inlaid work in fancy lines and arabesques. Half prices. Covered to your liking from a large assortment of tapestries and damasks.

At $24, were $41—10 suits of 3 pieces each. At $25.50, were $45—12 suits of 3 pieces each.

At $26, were $45—13 suits of 3 pieces each. At $30, were $60—44 suits of 3 pieces each. At $39, were $65—6 suits of 3 pieces each. At $45, were $85—23 suits of 5 pieces each. At $45, were $85—10 suits of 5 pieces each.

Fourth floor.

Demonstrated The Carpet Store gives certain enjoyable evidences of its power in the prices marked on its regular stock. Carpet prices, as you undoubtedly know, are matters fairly fixed and standard. So, when you find new goods marked at figures much below that fixed standard, it's a fact worth noting, if you have carpet needs in sight.

We offer you a choice from a large assortment at figures like these:

We sell $2.50 Wilton Carpets at $1.65 yd. We sell $1.35 Axminster Carpets at $1 yd. We sell $1.35 Body Brussels at $1 yd. We sell 70c. and 80c. Tapestry Carpets at 40c. yd.

We sell 60c. Tapestry Carpets at 50c. yd. We sell 50c. Tapestry Carpets at 40c. yd.

These are not "special offers,"—they are regular goods in our regular stock. All new this Spring, and particularly well selected.

Third floor.
